Job Description

Princeton University seeks qualified candidates for a tenured professorship in any discipline, including the arts, the humanities, the social sciences, engineering and the natural sciences. Candidates are required to have regional expertise on India, knowledge of relevant foreign languages, and experience managing a center or program. In addition to contributing to their respective disciplinary department and to the wider research community of the Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies (PIIRS), they are expected to broaden Princeton's international networks and strengthen regional course offerings at the University. Field of specialization is open.

Applicants should apply online at <http://dof.princeton.edu/academicjobs>. Senior scholars should submit a brief letter of interest along with a curriculum vita and a list of references, but no publications, letters of recommendation or writing samples at this time. For fullest consideration, please apply by October 2, 2017.

Essential Qualifications:

Excellence in a recognized field or discipline. Regional expertise on India.
