university retention, the Coach will work with constituents across campus to provide support to our most at-risk students. The Coach will utilize the university's Navigate system to manage alerts for their assigned students.

Key accountabilities and responsibilities:

- Provides holistic support, academic coaching, and consultative services to assigned caseload of first-year college students that may include a specific targeted and/or underrepresented population.
- Fosters strong relationships with students, serves as an initial and consistent point of contact, and provides excellent holistic customer service, responding empathetically and accurately to student inquiries.
- Assists students in the development of academic and personal skill-building tied to undergraduate student success (e.g. stress management, study skills, self-advocacy skills).
- Addresses barriers to success, including assisting students with identifying academic skills, strengths, and areas of improvement.
- Engages in proactive management of caseload, including consistent and direct contact with students, targeted outreach at key points in the first year, and monitors student progress and performance. Provides appropriate intervention and records applicable activities via the Navigate platform/university tools.
- Maintains university-wide and college-specific knowledge of relevant policies, procedures, resources and services associated with student success, academic achievement and first-year student needs.
- Works in partnership with and ensures follow-up with campus units to help students navigate complex issues that may intersect with other offices, such as Admissions, Financial Aid, academic advisors, faculty, Student Accounts, and Campus Living.
- Provides appropriate, accurate and timely referrals for students to campus and community resources, such as Counseling Services, Tutoring & Academic Support Services, Center for Excellence in Writing and Blue Table.

The University at Buffalo is committed to providing as diverse and inclusive environment as possible for staff, faculty and students. Therefore, we seek candidates who are committed to ensuring that services reflect, support and enhance diversity, equity and inclusion. We invite individuals to apply whose perspectives and experiences will enrich and strengthen our organization. The university serves an increasingly diverse constituency of patrons, and our employees, services and policies strive to honor and reflect this diversity. We encourage candidates who thrive in a welcoming multicultural environment to apply.
