Ahmedabad University is a private, non-profit university founded in 2009 by the Ahmedabad Education Society, a non-profit education trust, which over a period of 90 years has set up several renowned institutions. Ahmedabad University is located in the heart of one of India's most vibrant cities and its educational programmes, from undergraduate to doctoral programmes, are built around a liberal education with a strong interdisciplinary focus. The University is working to develop a strong research focus with a public ethos. The University therefore offers a remarkable opportunity to re-imagine a university in the global academy and within subcontinental traditions of knowledge, and to act as a bridge between the arts, the sciences and the professions.

Job Description

The successful candidate will be expected to teach courses in their areas of expertise, engage in high-level research, to publish in their specialist field, to seek opportunities for external funding for their research, advise students, and supervise and examine undergraduate and graduate work.

Ahmedabad University is looking for innovative, creative and dynamic individuals, who wish to join an eclectic group of 175 full-time faculty from around the world and a vibrant community of over 3500 students at undergraduate to doctoral levels.

The university offers competitive compensation and benefits and greatly supports professional and personal growth.
