DISCIPLINES

Sociology*

As an Associate Principles of Sociology, you will have the chance to teach a variety of courses that may include Introduction to Sociology, Modern Social Problems, and Marriage and Family. We are also planning to broaden our curriculum with more courses in upcoming semesters.

Your role will involve developing engaging and interactive lesson plans, selecting relevant educational materials and textbooks, delivering thought-provoking lectures, and creating and grading assignments and assessments. We provide flexible teaching modalities, allowing you to teach both in-person and, potentially, online courses. This position offers a dynamic environment to apply your expertise and contribute to the education of a diverse student body.
