Job Description

The Institute for the Study of Free Enterprise in the Gatton College of Business at University of Kentucky invites applications for a postdoctoral research fellowship in the economics of hospitals. The position would begin in Fall 2024 and conclude in June 2026.

The Institute for the Study of Free Enterprise has received a new grant from the Kentucky Hospital Association. The award is to write policy briefs and scholarly articles on several issues related to hospital finance, such as site-neutral payments, CON laws, regulations, tort reform, workforce shortages, administrative costs, public expenditures, and workplace violence.

Desired qualifications:

- Ph.D. in economics, public health, or a closely related field.
- Evidence of potential for publishing in top-tier economics journals.
- Experience studying issues related to health care finance and delivery.

The Gatton College of Business and Economics is nearing its 100th anniversary. Over that time, we have been preparing principled leaders for the global economy, producing high quality, influential research, and supporting economic growth in Kentucky and beyond. Accredited by the AACSB, Gatton proudly offers a full range of undergraduate, graduate and professional business and economics degrees and certificates in both a face to face and online format. We are housed in a 220,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility where the college accommodates the fastest growing student enrollment on UK's campus, reaching over 4,000 students in Fall 2022. Through teaching, research, and outreach, the Gatton College has a direct, tangible influence on the lives of Kentucky's citizens and people around the world. We are looking for professionals who embody the College's tagline of "Blue Means Business".
