Bachelors of Arts degrees in Psychological Science, as well as Masters of Science degrees in Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling. Psychological Science is one of the largest majors in the College of Arts and Science with over 100 majors and more than 150 minors.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Actively engage the Catholic Franciscan mission and identity of Marian University by modeling the Franciscan Sponsorship Values and honoring the legacy of the founding congregation through transformative education, unity in diversity, leadership through service, integrating faith and life, and institutional policies.

Marian University employs a diversified work plan model that recognizes time spent in teaching, service, and scholarship activities. This position will maintain full-time status in that model.

Maintain an active program of scholarship and/or other professional activities.

Actively participate in faculty meetings, departmental functions, and university service.

Other duties as assigned.

Required Qualifications:

Doctoral degree in Psychology; ABD will be considered.

We are particularly interested in candidates who could teach Abnormal Psychology, Clinical Psychology, Theories of Personality, and General Psychology.

Teaching experience in higher education strongly preferred.

Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Demonstrated ability to be self-motivated and to work collaboratively with colleagues throughout the university and in the community.

Commitment to multicultural competence, best practices in teaching, high ethical standards, diversity, and community service/engagement.

Involvement in state, regional, and/or national professional associations.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
