Job Description

The Department of Economics is seeking to hire up to four part-time, non-tenure-track faculty members to teach at least one, and up to three, undergraduate classes in the academic year 2025-2026. The interest is in General Economics, Principles of Economics, with potential emphasis on Environmental Applications; and Intermediate Economics (both micro and macro). This appointment will begin September 2025, will be for one academic year in duration, and may be renewable. Compensation is governed by the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) governing part-time faculty employment and includes eligibility for health, dental, vision, and insurance benefits, if teaching three or more courses. The Tufts Economics Department is dedicated to effective teaching and is committed to a belonging and supportive teaching environment.
