Successful candidates will have a PhD or PsyD in psychology, and professional experience reflecting strong commitments to teaching, research and service. As a university formed on the American model, with English as the language of instruction, we give priority to candidates who have experience in American models of higher education.

Our new Department of Psychology is rapidly growing. We've recruited highly motivated student cohorts with internationally recognized student organizations, including Psi Chi and a psychology club. The program hosts dedicated lab spaces, specialized software and hardware, a research participation pool, and support services such as Sona Systems. Our psychology faculty regularly publish in strong peer-reviewed journals, have won internal and external competitive grants, and integrate undergraduate students into their lab activities.

For the first stage of evaluation, we require only your CV and a letter detailing your interest in and fit with the position. Please submit these two documents in PDF format through this link.

Questions about the position, AUS, or expatriate life in the UAE can be sent to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Ehab Hermena (ehermena@aus.edu), or the Head of Department, Dr. Mark Aveyard (maveyard@aus.edu).

Review of applications will begin January 5, 2026; review will continue until the position is filled.
