University, a private not-for-profit university, is the youngest QS World University Ranking rated 4-Star university in the Asia Pacific Region and is partnered with Cornell University and the University of Pennsylvania. It is located in Hanoi, Vietnam, and has newly built state of the art teaching and research facilities. Offering a world-class education that combines international expertise and local knowledge, the University's vision is to become a top-ranked university and it is striving towards achieving recognition as one of the QS World University Ranking's "Top 50 Under 50". By joining us, you'll be part of an innovative and dynamic community dedicated to excellence in teaching and research.

The College of Arts and Sciences at VinUniversity is recruiting full-time faculty in the following field and track:

- Field: Psychology.
- Track: Teaching (Associate Lecturer / Lecturer / Senior Lecturer) or Research/Teaching (Assistant Professor / Associate Professor / Full Professor),

Candidates who have in-depth knowledge and expertise in a specific area of Psychology, such as Developmental Psychology, Cognitive Psychology, Clinical Psychology, Social Psychology or Leadership [LS1] are welcome to apply. The successful candidate should be able to demonstrate their understanding of relevant theories, research methodologies, and practical applications. They should also stay up to date with the latest research and developments in the field of psychology and be able to incorporate them into their teaching. Candidates should demonstrate evidence of creativity and excellence in teaching and scholarly research. In addition, the successful candidate will demonstrate experience with fostering, or the ability to foster, an inclusive and equity center-centered teaching, learning, and research environment where all can thrive. Practical experience in the field of psychology, such as clinical work, counseling, or research in a relevant setting, will strengthen a candidate's application. The position also involves advising undergraduates and supervision of graduate student teaching fellows.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

Full-time faculty members of the College of Arts and Sciences will have three major responsibilities: teaching, research, and service. The workload allocation will depend on the faculty ranking and faculty track in alignment with generally accepted international standards and practices at peer universities.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The College of Arts and Sciences is a dynamic and comprehensive academic institution that offers a wide range of programs and opportunities for students. As a part of VinUniversity, the College of Arts and Sciences provides a strong foundation in General Education along with three distinct bachelor programs: economics, communications, and psychology.

Our College of Arts and Sciences takes inspiration from the three principles of education reform, namely “dan toc” [nation], “khoa hoc” [science] and “dai chung” [people] put forth by Vietnam’s longest-serving Minister of Education, the late Professor Nguyen Van Huyen, who strove to develop an education system to build a modern nation for all Vietnamese citizens in the trying times of post-independence Vietnam.

[LS1] To fully explore possibilities of how the digital could change the world and help us fulfil the primary mission of VinUniversity, the College of Arts and Sciences at VinUni aspires to become a model bona-fide interdisciplinary core curriculum in Vietnam. Taking onboard experiences in multi-disciplinary, cross-disciplinary, and interdisciplinary research and teaching from across the world and different intellectual traditions, we adopt a grounded but innovative approach in the design of courses in collaboration with faculty, students, and relevant stakeholders in state and society. Serving as the core curriculum for all VinUniversity students, each course in the College of Arts and Sciences is designed to plant the seeds that will help students ask “big questions” about the past and present, develop the capacity to learn new skills and bridge the gap between theory and practice. Our co-curricular programs, planned in collaboration with a wide of range external stakeholders, extend beyond the initial year to take students out of the classrooms to fully reap the benefits of experiential learning.

The College of Arts and Sciences at Vin University is committed to providing a stimulating and supportive learning environment for students. The faculty consists of experienced professors and experts in their respective fields who are dedicated to imparting knowledge and fostering intellectual growth. In addition to classroom instruction, students have access to state-of-the-art facilities, research opportunities, internships, and extracurricular activities that enhance their overall educational experience.

To competently serve society with heart and mind, the College of Arts and Sciences seeks to begin cultivating in each student six identified attributes, namely: Character, Competence, Critical Thinking, Leadership, Entrepreneurship, and National Pride-Global Awareness. Right from the beginning, we encourage students to ask the questions, “what could you do for society” and “how would you go about actualizing your goals?” To enable students to be a part of VinUniversity’s founding mission, we seek to develop future leaders who take pride in their national heritage, are global-minded, have character, and possess an entrepreneurial spirit. The College of Arts and Sciences is where this journey begins.

Overall, the College of Arts and Sciences at VinUniversity offers a comprehensive education in General Education along with specialized programs in economics, communications, and psychology. Through its diverse curriculum and supportive learning environment, the college aims to prepare students to become well-rounded professionals who can contribute positively to their chosen fields and society.
